

Sinclair's forcing its stations to show an anti-Kerry diatribe so close to the election is an evil of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses my airwaves for free, and has to serve the public interest in exchange. But one company controls the airwaves, we get what's good for Bullmoose, not what's good for the country.

This is why we need to rules to de-concentrate media ownership. Thank you.